STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE
ORDER RE DOCUMENTS

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff has requested, and in the future may request, documents and information relating to Defendants' internal operations, policy holders, agents, and employees. That information and those documents contain confidential and/or proprietary information as well as the private and personal information of non-parties. Further, Defendants may in the future request information from Plaintiff that Plaintiff may contend is confidential, proprietary, or

1 sensitive. The purpose of this Protective Order includes the protection of the confidentiality
2 of such information and documents, while ensuring the parties can obtain and pursue 3 discovery with minimal delay and expense.

4 II. STIPULATION

5 This Stipulation is entered into by Plaintiff James A. Noyes and Defendants State
6 Farm General Insurance Company, State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, 7 State Farm Life Insurance Company, and State Farm Fire and Casualty Company, by and 8 through their attorneys of record, for the purpose of efficient and reasonable discovery in this 9 matter. The undersigned attorneys are also parties to this Stipulation.

10 Because the purpose of this Protective Order is to preserve confidentiality and to 11 facilitate the proper handling of proprietary, sensitive, or private information, the parties
12 agree they are bound by this Protective Order, which constitutes a fully enforceable
13 Confidentiality Agreement from and after the date their counsel have signed it, even though 14 the court has not yet entered it. If the Court for any reason modifies or declines to enter this 15 agreement, the parties are nevertheless bound by their promises with regard to this Protective 16 Order, including making best efforts to file confidential documents only under seal in 17 accordance with the Civil Rules and applicable Local Rules.

18 III. PROTECTIVE ORDER AND CONFIDENTIALITY 19 AGREEMENT

20 The parties hereby stipulate:

21 1. "Confidential Information" is defined as all information and documents which 22 any party to this agreement considers contains confidential, proprietary or private personal 23 information. It shall include those documents later identified by the producing party as 24 confidential even if produced prior to the execution of this stipulation and order.

25 All such documents and information therein shall not be disclosed to others except as 26 permitted under this Stipulation, and are limited to use or disclosure only for the sole purpose

1 of this lawsuit. All documents produced, used or referenced by counsel by this Stipulation
2 shall be marked "Confidential Subject to Protective Order" or as provided in Section 8 3 following.

4 2. The term "Party" shall include James A. Noyes, State Farm General Insurance
5 Company, State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, State Farm Life Insurance
6 Company, and State Farm Fire and Casualty Company.

7 3. The term "Counsel" shall be restricted to those attorneys, secretaries and 8 paralegals or other personnel of the undersigned attorneys who need the Confidential
9 Information in order to work on behalf of a party to this Stipulation.

10 4. Information identified by a party as Confidential Information may not be used
11 by the parties receiving the designated Confidential Information in any other investigation 12 and/or action other than the present lawsuit and shall not be disclosed by counsel to any 13 person other than:

14 a. Counsel to the parties to this Stipulation;

15 b. Experts and consultants necessary to assist such counsel in prosecuting,
16 defending or settling the claims asserted by the parties who have signed an Acknowledgment
17 in the form attached as Exhibit A;

18 c. Any party to this lawsuit or employee, officer, or director of such party, 19 including but not limited to, investigators, insurers or reinsurers, who has signed an 20 Acknowledgment in the form attached as Exhibit A, to the extent deemed necessary by 21 counsel for the prosecution, defense or settlement of the claims asserted by the parties;

22 d. Any deponent, prospective witness, or trial witness who has signed an 23 Acknowledgment in the form attached as Exhibit A;

24 e. Judge, court personnel, court reporters, and similar personnel;

25 f. Any person who was involved in the preparation of the document or 26 who received or reviewed it prior to the litigation; and

1 g. Any other person who is authorized in writing by both parties and who 2 signs an Acknowledgment in the form attached as Exhibit A.

3 5. Counsel for the parties shall fully apprise and advise their experts, parties and 4 employees of parties of all conditions and terms of this Stipulation. Copies of this 5 Stipulation shall be provided to all experts, parties and employees of parties along with the 6 admonition that said experts, parties and employees of parties are fully bound by this Order.
7 No party or counsel may disclose Confidential Information or discovery responses to any of 8 the persons identified in paragraphs 4.b. through 4.d. above without first obtaining the 9 agreement of such consultant or expert witness to (a) keep such Confidential Information and 10 discovery responses and the information contained therein confidential; (b) refrain from 11 disclosing the same to any other third person; (c) use such confidential material only for 12 purposes of assisting counsel in the preparation and trial of this case or forming an opinion in 13 these proceedings; and (d) return all Confidential Information at the conclusion of their 14 services to the party or counsel who provided that information, and to destroy or return all 15 extracts or summaries of Confidential Information in their possession.

16 6. None of the confidentiality restrictions herein shall apply to information that 17 (i) exists in the public records, (ii) becomes available to the parties or their representatives on 18 a non-confidential basis from a source which is legally permitted to divulge or disclose such 19 information.

20 7. Counsel may hire outside photocopying services to copy material containing 21 Confidential Information as necessary without prior knowledge or consent of the other party.

22 8. Documents containing Confidential Information filed in support of or in 23 response to any motion or used at any deposition shall be clearly marked "Confidential, Filed 24 Under Seal" including copies provided to the Court which shall be filed concurrently in a
25 sealed envelope labeled "Filed Under Seal," with a motion seeking to have documents filed
26 under seal. If factual summaries of confidential information or documents are to be utilized

1 in the text of any pleading or motions, said pleading shall be labeled "Confidential, Filed 2 Under Seal," and a motion shall be filed seeking to have the documents filed under seal. The 3 parties, by agreement, may allow introduction of confidential documents or factual
4 summaries from which confidential information has been redacted into the Court record 5 without filing it under seal. E-mail approval of counsel shall be sufficient confirmation of 6 assent.

7 9. Any party wishing to designate deposition testimony or deposition exhibits as 8 Confidential Information may do so on the record during the deposition, or within twenty-9 one (21) days after receipt of the draft deposition transcript and exhibits. The designating 10 party shall be responsible for assuring that those portions of the deposition transcript and 11 exhibits designated as Confidential Information are appropriately bound by the reporter.
12 Deposition testimony, exhibits, and draft deposition transcripts shall be treated as 13 Confidential Information pursuant to this protective order during the twenty-one (21) days 14 allowed for review under this paragraph.

15 10. This Stipulation shall be without prejudice to the right of any party to apply to 16 the Court to,

17 a. seek a modification of the Stipulated Protective Order or seek a further 18 protective order;

19 b. challenge at any time whether any particular information or document is or 20 is not confidential;

21 c. seek disclosure of any "Confidential Information" beyond the terms of the 22 Stipulated Protective Order; and

23 d. seek other relief from any other obligation hereunder by showing the Court 24 appropriate grounds therefore.

25 11. This Agreement may be amended by leave of the Court or by written 26 stipulation of counsel, whether or not filed with the Court.

12. At the conclusion of this case, all appeals, or other termination of proceedings, all documents containing Confidential Information produced under the provisions of this order (and all copies) shall be returned to counsel for the producing party, and all extracts and summaries thereof shall be returned and/or destroyed. This Stipulation, insofar as it restricts the communication and use of the documents produced hereunder or information obtained from such documents, shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of the action.
